Re: Estate of Ungar, et al. v. Palestinian Authority, et al., 18 MS 0302 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Mr. Tolchin:

As we stated in our January 25, 2006 letter to you and Mr. Strachman, Messrs. El Gammal and Khaliq, consistent with Judge McMahon's memorandum opinion of November 7, 2005, have undertaken searches for any documents held in their individual capacities that would be responsive to the document requests listed in the subpoenas issued to them by the Estate. This exercise, of course, has been complicated by the fact that these gentlemen are located in Cairo, Egypt and Islamabad, Pakistan and we have had difficulty communicating with them.

In any event, we write to inform you that Messrs. El Gammal and Khaliq have completed their searches and are confident that they do not possess any responsive documents. However, they understand that their obligation to comply with the document aspect of the subpoenas is ongoing and if any responsive documents subsequently come into their possession as individuals, such documents will be forwarded to you in a timely fashion.

Sincerely,

William M. Sullivan
